LUXURY FIRST—Ease of living highlights keynote at the West Palos Verdes Estates homes, priced from $36,400 to $50,500, with model pictured above. Grandview Builders' other peninsula-view community, Grandview Palos Verdes, is priced from $25,700 to $36,000 on conventional and VA terms.

Local Firm Executive Retires After 38 Years

Robert W. Craig of Torrance has retired after more than 38 years of world-wide service for The National Supply Company.

In his capacity as a sales engineer for the company's Torrance, California, plant, or on special assignments for the sales department, he visited oil fields in virtually every part of the free world, advising on the operation of National rigs in service there.

Craig's first service for the company was in Canada. Later he became a familiar figure in the Gulf Coast and Mid-Continent fields. Eventually his travels took him to such places as Australia, India, the Middle East

Homeseekers Visit Grandview Estates

Brisk crowds have been reported weekdays, as well as weekends, at the model homes at Grandview Palos Verdes and West Palos Verdes Estates, according to an announcement by a representative of the Grandview Builders.

"More and more homeseekers have been taking time off during their work-week to shop for houses, with the immediacy of the Fall school term a deciding factor," William C. Kulow, sales director of one of the areas stated today, adding that immediate occupancy is still available.

Twelve model homes open daily at Grandview Palos Verdes may be reached via Crenshaw Blvd. to Silver Spur Road, turn right to the homes.

School Appoints Educational Head

W. A. Risinger, new educational director of the First Baptist Church of Lomita, is due to arrive this week. He will reside at 1724 242nd St.

Upon arrival, he will assume the position as principal of the Hillcrest Christian School, sponsored by the First Baptist Church.

His family consists of his wife, Lena Ruth Risinger, and two sons, Al, 16, and Bill, 6.

Risinger comes as an experienced church leader who has served with distinction in State-wide Denominational posts with the Southern Baptist General Convention of Arizona.

Risinger was State Brotherhood president, State Training Union leader, trustee of Grand Canyon Baptist College and member of the State executive board.

Mrs. Risinger served with Dr. John McKay as an elementary leader. She will be teacher of the first grade in the Hillcrest Christian School.

Model homes at West Palos Verdes Estates are open daily to the public at Hawthorne Blvd. and Palos Verdes Dr. West.

West Palos Verdes Estates is a peninsula-view ultraluxury community with three and four bedroom and family room, two and two and a half bath residences priced from $36,400 to $50,500 with 90% financing a strong buyer-incentive.

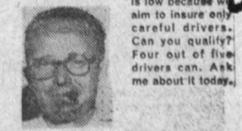

Grandview Palos Verdes Bay View Section homes are being offered from $25,700 to $36,600 for four and three-bedrooms and family room, two bedrooms and den and two baths, with interior living space up to 1,824 sq. ft.

A choice of 12 floor plans and a wide choice of exterior stylings in traditional, farmhouse and contemporary themes by noted architects Harris & Rice, A.I.A. is offered.

Lieutenant Completes Orientation Course

Army Second Lieutenant Earl W. Hurley Jr., 32, whose wife, Pearl, lives at 2820 166 St., Torrance, recently completed the officer orientation course at the Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Va.

The course, designed for newly-commissioned officers, was planned to familiarize men with the duties and responsibilities of Engineer Corps officers.

Lieutenant Hurley was associated with Wright Anersone in Torrance prior to entering the army. He is a 1946 graduate of South Gate High School and a 1952 graduate of the California Baptist Seminary in Covina.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Hurley, live at 8940 Otis St., South Gate.

ENTERTAINS GUESTS

Dining at The Pen and Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach recently were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kostecki of Torrance, who were entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Creel of San Mateo.
